

Openness in Research

On September 13, 2006, the Faculty Senate affirmed the Policy of Openness in Research and Public Disclosure of Sponsorship of Research. Cornell University has a tradition of free and open research dating from 1948, and a settled tradition since 1954 of publishing a detailed list of research projects. It is the policy of Cornell University that a listing of all Sponsored Program awards will be made publicly accessible and updated on a regular basis (ideally monthly) giving the name of the Principal Investigator, the name of the unit administering the award, the name of the sponsoring agency (or organization) of the award, the project title, and the amount of the award. Cornell University will decline awards if a sponsoring agency is unwilling to be listed by name.
